LANGUAGE PROGRAM

Ongoing Lecturer Pool Searches:

Chinese, French, German, Hebrew, Hindi, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish

The Language Program at the University of California, Santa Cruz is developing a pool of qualified temporary instructors who could be called upon, as needed, to teach occasional courses during the months of September through June. We welcome applications in any of the following languages: Chinese, French, German, Hebrew, Hindi, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese, Russian and Spanish. If a candidate selected to the pool in the Language Program has an additional area of expertise, another campus unit may approach the candidate to teach in that area of expertise. The campus is especially interested in candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community through their teaching and other assigned duties.

RANK: Lecturer

SALARY: Commensurate with qualifications and experience: between $5,417 – $5,980 per course.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Master's degree or its equivalent in the appropriate field; near-native proficiency; one year full-time or near full-time university-level teaching experience in the language. If candidate was employed as a teaching assistant, documentation of independent teaching needs to accompany the application. We are particularly interested in candidates with experience teaching the targeted language both as a second language and as a heritage language.

POSITION AVAILABLE: As openings occur, contingent upon availability of funding.

TO APPLY: Application packet should include: a letter of application, curriculum vitae, three current confidential letters of recommendation*, sample syllabi, and student evaluations.

*All letters will be treated as confidential documents; please direct your references to UCSC's confidentiality statement at http://apo.ucsc.edu/academic_policies_and_procedures/cappm/confstm.htm
